

Free and Easy to Use Play Lists and Sing Along Videos

Arts Corner

by Mary Sue Wilkinson,

Founder of Singing Heart to Heart and Author of "Songs You Know by Heart: A Simple Guide for Using Music in Dementia Care"

Are you feeling overwhelmed by the lock down?

I understand.

I'd like to help. I've gathered up free and easy to use playlists and I've been making singalong videos for you as well.

Click on the links below, click play, and away you go.

Here's a spring and garden themed playlist I made on my YouTube channel. It includes 34 videos of the original versions of many uplifting and beautiful songs.

Here's a love song playlist with 38 songs, also on my YouTube channel.

Here are two sing along videos I made for you. Each sing along is about 10 or 11 minutes long and will play one right after the other because they are in a playlist.

And here's a link to my website where I have a free sing along library. These sing along videos will be available for free at least through May.

Looking for CDs? Here's the link to Teepa's online store where you can find both of my sing along CDs as well as my book. Bonus - Teepa offers free shipping.

And one more thing. Here's a little musical message from my home to yours.

Together we can harness the power and reap the benefits of music.

Don't worry if you lose these links. You can find everything by searching for Singing Heart to Heart.com and look for Singing Heart to Heart on YouTube.